Greetings:

*On behalf of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Committee, we extend this invitation to you to attend the 28th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Banquet Saturday, January 16, 2010.

As we strive to achieve community transformation through our unified commitment to peace and brotherhood, we acknowledge and celebrate the life of this great American, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., with you.

*This year's theme for our event(s) "Living the Dream: Saluting Community Leaders" is in recognition of the tireless service to our community by our honorees. In recognition of the standard of excellence of our Community Leaders, we are honored to present to our community our keynote speaker Dr. Julia Hare!

Dr. Hare is a motivational lecturer, relationship expert, author, social commentator, and educational psychologist. Dr. Hare has appeared on several television programs offering her expertise and insight, spoken before the Congressional Black Caucus, participated in Tavis Smiley's "State of the Black Family" Conference and spoke at the annual Essence Empowerment Seminars at the Essence Magazine Culture Festival. Her written work has been featured in several magazines and newspapers including The New York Times, The Washington Post, and The Miami Herald.

*Dr. Hare and her husband co-authored *The Endangered Black Family; Bringing the Black Boy to Manhood: The Passage, The Miseducation of The Black Child, Crisis in Black Sexual Politics and How to Find and Keep a BMW (Black Man Working).

Dr. Hare, along with her husband, Dr. Nathan Hare, formed The Black Think Tank located in San Francisco, California.

Dr. Hare's work has brought her many awards and honors including Educator of the Year for Washington, D.C. by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and World Book Encyclopedia in coordination with American University; The Abe Lincoln Award for Outstanding Broadcasting, The Carter G. Woodson Education Award, The Association of Black Social Workers' Harambee Award; the Scholar of the Year Award from the Association of African Historians; and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the International Black Writers and Artists Union. Dr. Hare has been inducted into the Hall of Fame of her high school alma mater, Booker T. Washington High, was given a Presidential citation from the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education and was named one of the ten most influential African Americans in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Dr. Hare taught elementary school in Chicago, Illinois, served as the director of educational programs at the Oakland Museum and later hosted talk shows for both ABC television and KSFO radio stations. She also served as the public relations director in the local federal housing program in San Francisco.

Her formal education includes a B.A. in music from Langston University of Langston, Oklahoma; a M.A. degree in music education from Roosevelt University located in Chicago, Illinois and a Ph.D. in education from the California Coast University in Santa Ana, California.

Please, join us as we celebrate and honor the legacy of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., as we empower the transformation of Dr. Kings Dream to our community, youth, and families. It is our collective charge to Live the Dream to justify the struggle of those who have prepared the way before us!
